CommonGood Securities, LLC (“CGS”) Customer Relationship Summary September 30, 2020

Introduction	CommonGood Securities is a broker dealer that has been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) since February 12, 2018 and has been a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) since February 12, 2018. We are a wholesaling firm which means our clients are not the retail investor. Instead our clients are the investment advisers and to lesser extent non-affiliated broker dealers, along with the respective representatives, or financial professionals, of those businesses. CommonGood Securities provides its clients with varied educational materials and support within the wholesaling relationship we maintain. Free and simple tools are available to research the firm and financial professionals at www.FINRA.org/brokercheck. You also can access FINRA’s educational materials about broker dealers and investing by visiting www.finra.org/investors/insights.
What investment services and advice can you provide me?	CommonGood Securities does not provide investment advice or services that a retail broker dealer provides. We are your broker dealer of record for a very limited number of accounts that we offer to friends and family. We call these accommodation accounts. As your broker dealer of record for your accommodation accounts, we only provide account administration services. Please see your personal financial professional who will offer investment services that we do not, such as investment advice, recommendations, determining which type of account you should use, and for the ongoing monitoring of your account.
What fees will I pay?	Accommodation account holders do not pay fees to CommonGood Securities for investing in offered investment products or for administration of accounts. Please see the section below entitled “How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?” for more detail. The fees you will pay are to investment product managers or general partners and are described clearly within the respective prospectus or private placement memorandum (PPM). You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations?	CommonGood Securities does not provide investment recommendations. Investment advice is not within the scope of our business model. For investment strategies, recommendations, and advice, please speak with the personal financial professional you have chosen. During the time you maintain the account at CGS, if there are no communications from us, you should not consider the lack of communication an implicit hold recommendation. CommonGood Securities does not monitor your account on your behalf.
How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	CommonGood Securities, as a wholesaling broker dealer or dealer manager, does not receive compensation from you when you make a purchase of a CGS offered investment product through an accommodation account. However, we receive compensation from the manager or general partner of the offered investment products – and in limited circumstances, we also receive compensation from the offered investment product – when you make a purchase of a CGS offered investment product through an accommodation account. Please see the prospectus or PPM for the fees paid to the manager or general partner of the offered investment product. The fees paid to the manager or general partner, and to a lesser degree CGS, will likely allow for additional compensation when the value of the shares of the investment product are increased and when certain performance targets are met.
How do your financial professionals make money?	Our financial professionals do not make money from accommodation accounts.
Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?	No
